

Psalm 45: Set to the tune of "The Lilies", a Song of Love

THE MANNER OF THE MARRIAGE

The Betrothal

It was arranged by _____

It included a contract indicating _____

The groom would offer the _____

It included a ceremony which involved _____

The Waiting

The man would leave, announcing: _____

The woman would prepare herself by: _____

The Procession

When the wedding chamber was ready _____

The bridegroom would be dressed in _____

He announced his arrival with _____

The bride would be dressed in _____

The bridegroom would steal _____

The wedding party would proceed to _____

The Marriage Supper

The bride and groom and invited guests would enjoy a marriage supper which included _____

The groom would escort his bride to _____

THE GRANDEUR OF THE GROOM

The King is the _____ of the poem.

He is _____

His speech is _____

He is _____, _____, and _____.

He is a _____, and He is _____.

He is _____ for the occasion.

THE BEAUTY OF THE BRIDE

She is wearing _____.

She is to receive important _____.

She must forget _____.

She is to _____ to her Lord.

She is to _____ Him.

She is in her finest _____.

With great gladness and rejoicing, they enter the King's _____.
And they live _____.